Public Service Recognition Week

Whereas: Public employees at federal, state, and local levels provide essential services which make America and her communities stronger, safer places to live, work, and raise families, protect and serve the welfare of her citizens, and advance the common good; and

Whereas: America's citizens benefit from the vast array of public goods and services provided each day by public employees committed to the tenets of good government and public administration,; and

Whereas: Public service is a noble calling, one that enables the community to benefit from the gifts and talents of the men and women who become public servants as a means of contributing to the present and future well-being of their communities; and

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved:

That the Mayor & City Council do hereby proclaim the week of May 12 through 16, 2014, as PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK in the City of Minneapolis, a time to recognize and honor the many contributions of federal, state, and local government employees to this great nation and to its many communities.

And Be It Further Resolved: That the employees of the City of Minneapolis are especially commended and offered the sincere gratitude, thanks, and appreciation of Mayor Hodges and the Members of the City Council, on behalf of the people of this great community, for their daily efforts to preserve, protect, and promote the health, safety, and welfare of residents, businesses, and visitors of the City of Minneapolis.
