

Minneapolis Vulnerability Workshop Agenda

May 23rd, 2013

Minneapolis Central Library, Doty Board Room

Workshop Goals: Begin identifying highest priority community vulnerabilities; establish process to achieve group consensus on the areas in greatest need of action; and continue building community support and cohesion for climate adaptation efforts.

Agenda

- | | |
|----------------|--|
| 7:30am | Breakfast and Networking |
| 8:00am | Welcome and Introductions
Brendon Slotterback, Sustainability Program Coordinator
Heidi Hamilton, Deputy Director of Public Works |
| 8:15am | Climate Change and Minneapolis: Why it Matters
Brendon Slotterback, Sustainability Program Coordinator |
| 8:45am | Recap from Previous Day: Climate Change and Minneapolis
Dan Brown, Great Lakes Integrated Science and Assessment |
| 9:15am | Understanding Vulnerability
Missy Stults, University of Michigan |
| 9:30am | Group Discussion on Areas Likely to be Affected by Climate Change |
| 9:45am | System Break-Out Groups |
| 10:30am | Report Back |
| 11:00am | Identifying Key Vulnerabilities
Elizabeth Gibbons, Great Lakes Integrated Science and Assessment |
| 11:30am | Report Back |
| 12:00pm | Identifying Strategies to Reduce Vulnerability |
| 12:30pm | Closing and Next Steps
Brendon Slotterback, Sustainability Program Coordinator |