To: Deputy Chief Travis Glampe
Minneapolis Police Department
Professional Standards

The Policy and Procedure Committee of the Minneapolis Police Conduct Oversight Commission requested training information as outlined in the original letter below, forwarded through Director Browne of the OPCR on April 1, 2014. As of this date, we have received no acknowledgement of this request. The forward progress of this committee as well as the PCOC as a whole is dependent upon the timely receipt of materials and your assistance is requested in raising the priority for this request.

To: Commander Jason Case
Minneapolis Police Department
Leadership & Organizational Development Division

The Policy and Procedure Committee of the Minneapolis Police Conduct Oversight Commission would like to request some information regarding current training materials and procedure.

A case synopsis recently under discussion by our committee on the subject of investigatory stops detentions, more specifically, the basis and determination of investigatory stops and the scope of pat searches.

We respectfully request detailed information on this training topic with regard to the following:

- What are the relevant policies?
- How the officers are trained?
- What are the current training materials?
- What methods are in place to ensure compliance?

Thank you for your assistance,

Andrew Buss
