

Charter Of Communication Committee Of the Minneapolis Charter Commission

The Communication Committee is charged with proposing communication strategies and tactics to the full Commission and implementing the same after adoption by and at the direction of the Commission.

These efforts may include, if directed by the full Commission:

1. Maximizing the potential of the Commission's web page.
2. Maximizing distribution and coverage of information about the Commission and proposed Charter changes to the conventional and new media, neighborhood groups and their members, other targeted groups and any parties expressing a desire to receive such information.
3. Publicizing, through all appropriate sources, vacancies on the Commission or the Redistricting Advisory Group.
4. As requested by the full Commission, developing content for the Commission's web page, for media release or other dissemination to the public.
5. Developing communication and education plans and defining target audiences, as directed.
6. Engaging, informing and educating the public on pending Charter amendments, as directed.
7. Taking such other actions as may be assigned by the full Commission.

All meetings of the Committee shall be noticed and open.

The Committee shall regularly report on its activities to the full Commission.

The membership of the Committee shall be determined in accordance with the Rules of the Charter Commission.
