Formation of a Transgender Issues Work Group

To review issues facing the Transgender community, including potential policy, program, and administrative changes in the City of Minneapolis, the City Council will establish a Transgender Issues Work Group with participation from City staff, the City Council, the Mayor's Office, and community members. City staff will include participants from Human Resources, the City Attorney's Office, the Police Department, Civil Rights, Health, and Community Planning and Economic Development. The Mayor will identify representation from her office. The Council President will designate participation from the City Council. The Transgender Issues Work Group will develop a work plan, engage with the broader community, and report its recommendations to the Public Safety, Civil Rights, and Emergency Management Committee and other relevant Committees by February 2015.
