

The Future of East 38 Street

Participate. Connect.
Build.

History and Storytelling

The East 38 Street community is rich with history. African American entrepreneurs, civic, community, and faith leaders, home builders and architects, all contributed to the Minneapolis we know today. Join neighbors to elevate our history in the context of race and its impact on our community's present and future.

Wednesday, February 4, 6:00-8:00 pm
St. Peter's AME Church, 401 East 41st Street

Speakers:

Judge LaJune Lange (Retired)
Tracey Williams-Dillard, CEO, Minnesota Spokesman-Recorder,
Louis Moore, President, Major Taylor Bicycling Club, and
Iric Nathanson, neighborhood historian

Special Guests:

Doris Christopher, Clorasteen Wilson and Wayne Glanton

➡ BRING A MOMENTO, such as a photo, ticket stub, or other item that reflects our neighborhood's history, to share in conversation.

You are invited to participate in a four-part community meeting series about the future of East 38 Street.

Refreshments provided.
All voices welcome!
