QWEST BROADBAND SERVICES, INC., D/B/A CENTURYLINK
APPLICATION FOR A COMPETITIVE CABLE COMMUNICATIONS FRANCHISE
IN THE CITY OF MINNEAPOLIS

Qwest Broadband Services, Inc., d/b/a CenturyLink (“CenturyLink”) respectfully files this application for a competitive cable communications franchise to provide cable communications services in the City of Minneapolis. The following sets forth the information required to be submitted in an application in accordance with Section 5 of Ref. No. 265879.1 presented to the Minneapolis City Council on May 5, 2000 and Minn. Stat. §238.081, Subd. 4.

Franchise Applicant: Qwest Broadband Services, Inc. d/b/a CenturyLink (“CenturyLink”), a Delaware corporation, seeks a competitive cable communications franchise to offer cable communications services in the City of Minneapolis.

Applicant’s Representatives: The following individuals may be contacted for further information about this application:

- (b) James P. Campbell, 1801 California Street, 10th Floor, Denver, CO 80202; Tel: 303-992-5811
- (c) Andrew Schriener, 200 S. 5th Street, 21st Floor, Minneapolis, MN 55402; Tel: 512-663-6930

Channels: CenturyLink’s cable communications system will be fully digital. While the ultimate channel lineup has not been finalized at this time, attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a sample channel line up from another jurisdiction (Phoenix, Arizona) in which CenturyLink offers its cable communications service, Prism™. CenturyLink will provide the City with a copy of the actual channel lineup prior to launching service in Minneapolis. It should be noted that currently CenturyLink offers more channels in HD than any other MVPD nationally. It also provides a robust library of Video on Demand content. Lastly, it will carry all of the City’s eight Public Educational and Government access channels in HD if the City so elects.

FCC Authorization: In accordance with 47 C.F.R. §76.1801, CenturyLink will file a Form 322 with the FCC to obtain a Community Identification Number (CUID) prior to offering service in Minneapolis.

Cable Communications System and Operation

CenturyLink has two “super head ends”, one located in Columbia, Missouri and one in Littleton, Colorado and each super head end has a satellite “farm” used to download national content. These two super head ends provide redundancy, i.e., should an emergency interrupt service at one super head end, and then the other head end will be used to provide the national content. The national content is encoded and then deployed over diverse 10 Gig fiber circuits to the local head where the local content, including public, educational and government access channels, is inserted for ultimate delivery to end users. Minneapolis’s primary super head end is in Columbia, Missouri and the local head end will be located in Golden Valley, Minnesota. CenturyLink will pick up the local broadcast signals via fiber circuits and will also capture those signals by antennae located at the local head end as a back-up, precautionary measure.

CenturyLink will deploy its cable communications service, Prism, over facilities owned by an affiliated company, Qwest Corporation, d/b/a CenturyLink (QC). Prism is a switched digital service and is Ethernet based (it is not a QAM based, broadcast service). The fact that the service is switched digital and Ethernet based enables CenturyLink to offer unique features and functions, e.g., warp channel change, not generally available over more traditional cable systems, as more fully detailed below.

Currently, two network architectural designs are used to deliver Prism to subscribers: fiber to the node (FTTN) and fiber to the premises (FTTP), but the quality of the cable communications service is of the same high, technical quality regardless of the underlying network architecture. For FTTN, CenturyLink deploys fiber from a serving central office to a remote terminal in a neighborhood. The remote terminal houses the electronics (currently VDSL2) and such electronics create a broadband stream to individual addresses of up to 40Mbps (80Mbps if using pair bonding) over a copper subloop. For FTTP, there is fiber connectivity from the serving central office to a distinct address/location via an optical loop terminal (OLT) and this fiber connection will support broadband speeds of up to One Gbps. A set-top box is required for each television in a home to receive Prism. CenturyLink recently introduced a wireless set top box which enables the end user to move Prism to any location such as the patio or garage.

QC is the traditional telecommunications provider in Minneapolis. It has and will continue to pull all necessary permits and comply with all Minneapolis rules, codes and ordinances associated with access to and presence in the public rights of way.

CenturyLink is targeting an initial service launch in the second or third quarter 2015. CenturyLink will notify the City prior to commercially launching Prism in Minneapolis.

Prism Features and Functions:

As noted above, we have attached a sample channel line up from another market. This illustrates the vast selection of content available to subscribers. Because our system is IP based, we offer unique applications available via the television set such as access to Facebook and Picasa. In addition, search and streaming services are available which enable viewers to search for the cheapest gasoline within a specified area or to stream selected stock market quotes. We also have an ever increasing video on demand library. Prism is a state of the art offering and its features and functions also include, but are not limited to: (1) whole home DVR; (2) warp speed channel change; (3) find-it fast navigation, (4) multi-view (4 shows on one screen); (5) personal media sharing; (6) interactive news and information dashboard; (7) Prism on the Go (select content available over mobile devices such as smart phones and tablets); and (8) advanced parental controls. By going to the following URL, you can “experience” the features and functions of Prism through a short demonstration: <http://www.centurylink.com/prismtv/#index.html>.

Access Channels:

We will provide the same number of Access Channels as the incumbent cable communications provider and we will collect and remit the same amount of Access Channel monetary support from our subscribers as the incumbent cable communications provider. Because of the difference in technology between our system and the incumbent’s, we cannot interconnect with the incumbent for purposes of providing Access Channels. Rather, we will deploy fiber facilities between our head end and the City’s point(s) of origination to acquire the Access Channel content and insert it into our line-up. We will provide the Access Channels standard definition and will also provide them in high definition if the City so chooses. In addition to all the above, CenturyLink will make up to 25 hours of Access Channel content available on a server so that subscribers can access and watch Access Channel content, selected by the City, on our video on demand service.

Pricing and Standard Installation:

The attached Exhibit 2 is a sample of the pricing for Prism packages in another market. In advance of commercial launch in Minneapolis, CenturyLink will provide the city the pricing for various Prism packages that will be offered in Minneapolis.

CenturyLink will provide Prism service to all qualified households within seven days. CenturyLink does not have “non-standard” installation, i.e., the provision of service at an additional construction cost to the subscriber. Qualification for Prism service is purely a technical issue – it is not possible to pay an additional amount to qualify for the service.

Service to Government and Educational Facilities

CenturyLink will provide expanded basic service to all government buildings, schools and public libraries located in the City, so long as these government addresses are within the footprint of locations capable of receiving cable communications service from CenturyLink and no other cable communications provider is providing service at such location.

Initial Deployment and Availability of Prism

When CenturyLink begins to offer Prism commercially in Minneapolis, Prism will be available to over thirty percent of the households in the City. Turning up service in Minneapolis represents a very significant capital investment by the Company even though it has zero revenue-generating customers and its direct competitor has one hundred percent of the facilities based cable subscribers in the City. Further deployment will be driven by success in the market, i.e., as we win customers we will use that new revenue stream to invest in further deployment and broader availability of Prism throughout the City. As set forth in the franchise, CenturyLink will meet periodically with the City to review its current deployment footprint and to outline its plans in the upcoming quarter(s) for additional deployment. This market success deployment model is expressly supported by the FCC and has been adopted by other cities in the State of Minnesota.

CenturyLink’s Managerial and Technical Expertise in the Provision of Cable Communications Services to Consumers

CenturyLink has been offering Prism since 2008 when it initially launched its service in Lacrosse, Wisconsin and has continued to expand to its Prism footprint since that time. Prism is currently available in 13 markets. The attached Exhibit 3 is a list of the markets in which CenturyLink offers Prism pursuant to either statewide franchise statutes or locally negotiated, competitive franchises. In addition, the Company offers an analog product in smaller markets in Wisconsin and Iowa.

CenturyLink has upgraded and/or deployed new facilities, including fiber to the premises, so that it is capable of offering service to over 2.3 million homes. CenturyLink has approximately 300,000 Prism customers and continues to bring on new subscribers daily.

As it relates to content acquisition, CenturyLink is a member of the NCTC and obtains some of its content through that cooperative. In addition, it negotiates directly for access to about forty percent of its content.

The two super head ends as well as the local head ends all contain state of the art facilities for purposes of acquiring, processing and distribution of content to its end users whether through its Prism product or its Prism Everywhere offering.
