

2016 Board of Appeal & Equalization

Pursuant to Minneapolis Code of Ordinances, Section 32.30, the special board of review, sitting as the Minneapolis Board of Appeal and Equalization, must include at least one member who is an appraiser, a realtor, or an individual familiar with property valuations in the city. In addition, at least one member must be a “freeholder” (property owner) within the City of Minneapolis.

Staff presents the following slate of qualified individuals for appointment. Each of these individuals has completed the mandatory training provided by the State of Minnesota, Department of Revenue, and is certified to perform the duties of a member of a board of appeal and equalization through 2019, subject to Minnesota Statutes 1975, Section 274.01, subdivision 2.
