

Calling All Artists, Small Arts Organizations and Arts Supporters!

Influence the Direction of the Minneapolis Comprehensive Plan: Arts & Cultural Affairs Section

February 13th, 2008

8:00 – 9:00am

City Hall 350 South 5th Street, Room 220

Featuring City of Minneapolis guest speakers Karin Berkholz, Community Planning Supervisor, and Matthew James, Cultural Arts Administrator

Minneapolis is updating its Comprehensive Plan, which provides a long-term vision for growth and physical development of the City. The Comp Plan has a large section on Arts & Cultural Affairs, which includes such recommendations as: “Develop a creative industries strategy,” “Create a Department or Division of Arts & Cultural Affairs,” and “Make Minneapolis a More Livable Place for Artists.” Please come and give your input on this critical policy plan.

You can view the entire draft Comp Plan at www.minneapolisplan.info. You can view the Arts & Cultural Affairs Section of the Comp Plan at www.ci.minneapolis.mn.us/planning/docs/10\_artsCulturs\_1Dec07.pdf.

Questions? Contact 8th Ward Councilmember Elizabeth Glidden and Council Aide Andrea Jenkins at (612) 673-2208 or andrea.jenkins@ci.minneapolis.mn.us

Co-Sponsored by Councilmember Elizabeth Glidden and the Eighth Ward Office of The City of Minneapolis, Pillsbury House Theatre, Center for Independent Artists, Parkway Theater, and the Urban Arts Academy
