Dear Council Member Ostrow:

Attached is the Request for City Council Committee Action from Minneapolis Public Housing Authority (MPHA). We are recommending the appointment of Darlene Rogers to fill the vacancy of Asefa Ayana, the family resident commissioner. Commissioner Ayana has notified MPHA that he has moved from public housing but has been serving on the board until a replacement is appointed. This term will end on December 31, 2005.

Ms. Rogers is a former employee of MPHA who terminated her employment when she became physically disabled and unable to perform the responsibilities/tasks of her position. I have a high regard for Ms. Rogers and believe she would be a committed, involved family resident commissioner.

Please let me know if you have any questions or there is anything I can do to expedite Ms. Rogers' appointment. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

MINNEAPOLIS PUBLIC HOUSING AUTHORITY

Cora McCorvey, Executive Director
