

Ordinance of the City of Minneapolis

By Ostrow and Remington

Amending Title 15, Chapter 385 of the Minneapolis Code of Ordinances relating to Offenses--Miscellaneous: In General.

The City Council of The City of Minneapolis do ordain as follows:

Section 1. That Section 385.60 of the above-entitled ordinance be amended to read as follows:

385.60. Aggressive solicitation. (a) Policy. As an aid in the interpretation and enforcement of this section the city council finds that:

- (1) Aggressive solicitation is disturbing and disruptive to residents and businesses and contributes to the loss of access to and enjoyment of public places and to a sense of fear, intimidation and disorder.
- (2) Aggressive solicitation may include approaching or following pedestrians, repetitive soliciting despite refusals, the use of abusive or profane language to cause fear and intimidation, unwanted physical contact, or the intentional blocking of pedestrian and vehicular traffic.
- (3) The presence of individuals who solicit money from persons in places that are confined, difficult to avoid, or where a person might find it necessary to wait, is especially troublesome because of the enhanced fear of crime.
- (4) This section is intended to protect citizens from the disruption, fear and intimidation accompanying certain kinds of solicitation, and not to limit constitutionally protected activity.

(b) Definitions.

(1) "Solicitation," as used in this section, means any plea made in person where:

under circumstances where a reasonable person would understand that the transaction is in substance a donation.

However, solicitation shall not include the act of passively standing, sitting, or engaging in a performance of art with a sign or other indication that a donation is being sought, without any vocal request other than in response to an inquiry by another person.
