2005

Minneapolis voter information

Minneapolis offices on the ballot

Mayor, City Council, Board of Estimate and Taxation, Park and Recreation Board, and Library Board

Note ward and district boundary changes

2005 City elections use the ward and park districts created during the 2002 redistricting process.

How the Minneapolis elections work

City of Minneapolis elections are non-partisan. If more than two candidates file for an office, there is a primary. The top two primary-vote getters for each office run in the general election.

Who represents me until the new officials take office?

Current elected City officials continue to represent the ward or park district from which they were elected through 2005.

Are you bilingual?

Minneapolis Elections needs election judges who are fluent in English and a second language. Please call Minneapolis Elections or apply online.
