

Your 2010 utility bill

Find your 2010 utility rates

on the back of your bill every month or at www.ci.minneapolis.mn.us/utility-billing.

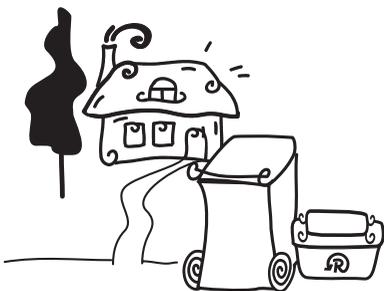

With your Minneapolis utilities, you get efficient, high quality services for a great value. Your tap water is clean and safe and has won taste tests against bottled water.

Your garbage and recycling pickup comes with extras – for instance, collects your electronics. You even get a credit for recycling. And you might not even be aware of how much we have underground; the City is constantly maintaining and improving more than 1,300 miles of systems that help control flooding and manage more than 60 million gallons of wastewater a day.

Minneapolis

Your tap water is a great value and a valuable resource. Find out ways to conserve this resource and save money on your utility bill.

Visit www.ci.minneapolis.mn.us/water/conservation-resources.asp.

Sign up to get your utility bill online

Once you sign up, you won't get your paper bill in the mail anymore; you will get an e-mail showing you how to see your bill online.
