This is long past due, and I certainly hope I'm not stepping out of bounds.

Michael would probably not be happy if he knew I was sending this. I just wanted to give mention to the extemporany job that Michael Nguyen does and what a pleasure it has been working with him. Too often, quality work and quality people don't get the credit they deserve. I am the Relationship Manager here at Wells Fargo on the Trust and Custody business for the City and have worked with Michael and his staff. As a result of the recent RFP it appears likely that we will not be retained as the custodian, and through it all Michael has been extremely professional and wonderful to work with.

I am quite sure I am pointing out the obvious, but again want to give credit where credit is due.

Thank You!
