Tours Showcase For-Sale Homes in Revitalizing Minneapolis Neighborhoods Impacted by Foreclosure

Potential homebuyers can talk to residents, learn about finance options, grab a map, and take a tour of South and Northeast neighborhoods

May 25, 2010 (MINNEAPOLIS) – The City of Minneapolis and LiveMSP are sponsoring housing tours of for-sale properties in South and Northeast Minneapolis neighborhoods, showcasing the variety of housing stock on the market and neighborhood amenities in communities bouncing back from foreclosures. The City is partnering with realtors and community developers to showcase housing at a variety of price points. The tours are one approach the City is taking to support revitalization occurring in the housing market.

South Minneapolis tour

- Sunday, June 6
- Begins at Midtown Global Market, 920 East Lake St.

Northeast Minneapolis tour

- Sunday, June 13
- Begins at Rogue Buddha Gallery, 357 13th Avenue NE

Both tours begin with an open house from 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. where participants can pick up their tour map, enjoy refreshments, talk to neighbors and learn about homebuyer programs. For-sale homes will be open from noon – 3:00 p.m., allowing participants to tour at their own pace. Tour maps will be available the day of the event at the open house.

Neighborhoods on the tour in South Minneapolis include West Phillips; Midtown Phillips; Phillips East; Central; Powderhorn Park; Corcoran; Bancroft.

Neighborhoods on the tour in Northeast Minneapolis include Columbia Park; Waite Park; Marshall Terrace; Audubon Park; Bottineau; Holland; Windom Park; Sheridan; Logan Park; Beltrami; Northeast Park.
