

Fall 2005

Public Art Update

City of Minneapolis

Art in Public Places

Art in Public Places enriches Minneapolis life by integrating public art into City services and building projects, such as bridges, bikeways and gateways and buildings. The program commissions new artworks, conserves and maintains existing works and supports projects conducted by other City departments and boards.

Artist Designs Under Way for Parks, Buildings, Roads and Bridges

Railings

1. Loring Bikeway

Began 2003
Artist Lisa Elias
Lyndale Avenue South and Franklin Avenue West
Partners: Public Works, Lowry Hill East Neighborhood Association

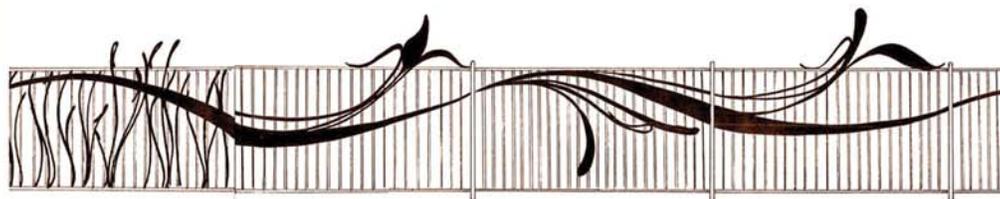

3, 6

2. Northeast Gateway Renovation

Began 2003
Artist Susan Fiene
Broadway Avenue North and Central Avenue North
Partners: Hennepin County, Public Works, Logan Park Neighborhood Association NRP, Northeast Park Neighborhood Association NRP, St. Anthony East Neighborhood Association NRP, General Mills Foundation

3. Heritage Park

Began 2002
Artist Seitu Jones
Sites throughout Heritage Park
Partners: Public Works, MPRB

1

Paving and Tilework

4. North Regional Library

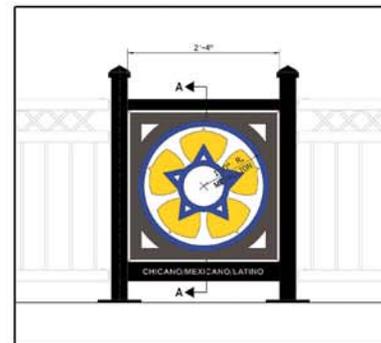

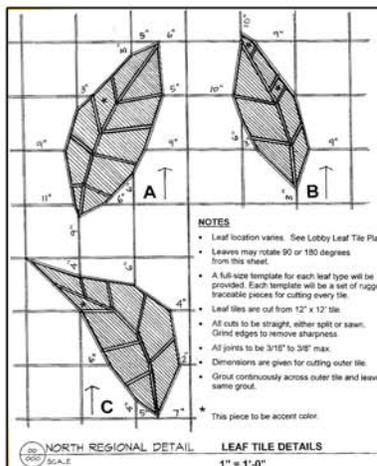

Began 2004
Artist: Marjorie Pitz
1315 Lowry Avenue North
Partner: Minneapolis Public Library Board

5. Midtown Greenway Phase III

Began 2005
Artists Teri Kwant and Greg Ingraham
Phase III Midtown Greenway entrance areas
Partners: Hennepin County, Public Works

6. Heritage Park

See #3 Above

2

4

Enhance community identity and place • Value artists and artistic processes

Glass

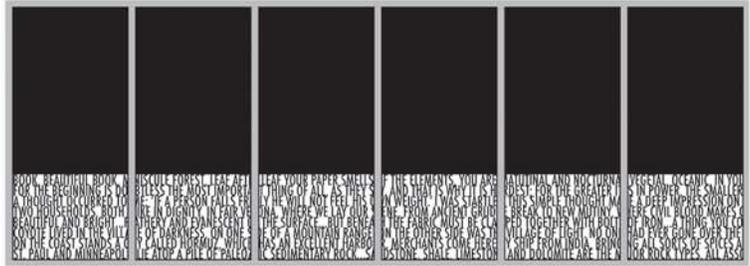

7. East Lake Library

Began 2004

Artist Janet Lofquist

2727 East Lake Street

Partner: Minneapolis Public Library Board

Seating and Gathering Spaces

8. Renovation of Artist Designed Bus Benches

Began 2002

Artists Stanton Sears, Leslie Hawk and Tom Rose

New Locations TBA

8

9. Midtown Greenway Phase III

See # 5 Above

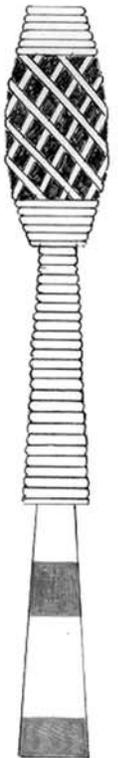

10. Jackson Square Park

Begins 2006

Artist TBA

23rd Avenue and Jackson Street Northeast

Partner: Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board

11

Wayfinding

11. Cedar Riverside LRT Pedestrian Area

Began 2005

Artists Jim Hirshfield and Sonya Ishi

Cedar Riverside LRT Area

Partners: Community Planning and Economic Development and West Bank Community Coalition

12. CPED Artist in Residence in Transit Corridors

Begins 2006

Artist TBA

Transit Projects TBA

Partner: Community Planning and Economic Development (CPED)

Art in Public Places has been a regular part of the City's Capital Improvement program since 1992. It is located in Community Planning and Economic Development and advised by the Minneapolis Arts Commission.

For more information, contact Mary Altman, Public Arts Administrator, 612-673-3006, 350 S. 5th St, #210, Minneapolis, 55415, mary.altman@ci.minneapolis.mn.us, www.ci.minneapolis.mn.us/dca.

5

Involve a broad range of people and communities • Use resources wisely