

Downtown Public Art

2. River Goddess

2nd Avenue N and West River Parkway
Karen Sontag Sattel, 1989

Seventeen limestone boulders excavated from the site are connected by a river of sand and pebbles. The central limestone figure, is reminiscent of ancient megaliths, or a river goddess. The right stone configuration imitates the rock strata of the area.

Return to Downtown Public Art Map

Image not for reproduction