EXAMPLES
Corcoran Neighborhood Association
Value Artists and Artistic Processes

Over 90 volunteers, led by artist Carole Bersin and CNO staff, installed a pavement mural at the intersection of 33rd Street East and 21st Avenue South in June 2012. The design featured a “maze of life” labyrinth pattern overlaid with neighborhood people, creatures, and objects. It was informed by input from neighbors on the block, in response to the question, “what is in your maze of life?” Carole responded to Call for Pavement Art and was selected by a jury of Corcoran residents. The design was installed using anti-skid traffic marking paint.

Powderhorn Park Neighborhood Association
Involve a Broad Range of People and Communities

PPNA’s Community Organizer, Sara Lopez and local artist Forrest Wozniak developed a design incorporating geometric and mathematic elements based on Wozniak’s experience in a series of community development workshops and events for Arts on Chicago facilitated by the Pillsbury House + Theatre. The square in the center of the design represents the four neighborhood corners; the colors express the difference in cultures; and the triangles encircling the square represent community. A fun and universal example of math, the pavement mural can be enjoyed by children and adults across from a range of backgrounds and cultures. The simple design also made it easy to repaint the mural the next year.

INSTRUCTIONS

Application Instructions

Pre-application (See deadlines on page 12)

By the deadline email the proposed intersection(s) and/or adjacent address(es) and attach a map (PDF or JPEG) noting the exact proposed location(s) to mary.altman@minneapolismn.gov.

Arts Commission Application (See deadlines on page 12)

By the deadline, complete and submit the materials below in one single PDF file to mary.altman@minneapolismn.gov:

1. Completed Application Form (see Forms)
2. Images:
   - A final and legible, color design for each location in 8.5 x 11” format. (One page per location.) Include the site dimensions, the imagery, names of the streets, and the name of the artist.
   - Early design review: The City may accept proposals without final designs or that have not yet selected artists from applicants and artists with experience in developing a public art project of a similar scale and quality. In lieu of final designs, submit images of previous artworks by the applicant and the artist, or information on the process and criteria used to select the artist.
3. Letter of support from the neighborhood organization(s) where the project is occurring or, if the location is in a Special Service District, a letter of support from the Special Service District Board. (A map of Special Service Districts can be found at http://www.ci.minneapolis.mn.us/boards/special/index.htm.
4. Resumes of each artist.
5. A waiver signed by each artist of their rights under the Visual Artists Rights Act (VARA) (see forms.)
6. For applicants who have previous permits for art: For each artwork, submit one electronic photo, date stamped, documenting the condition of all sides of the artwork.

Three Phases of the Application Process

1. Pre-application: How you determine if the intersections you are proposing are eligible.
2. Arts Commission Application: To obtain approval for the design, artist and community engagement for the project.
3. Encroachment Permit Application: This is when you submit insurance and other requirements, and pay your permit fees.
An Encroachment Permit is required for any existing or proposed structure or portion thereof that projects onto, under or over any municipal right of way, under the authority outlined in Title 5, Chapter 95, of the City of Minneapolis Code of Ordinances. The Encroachment Permit gives the permit-holder permission to use a specific portion of the right of way until such time as that portion of the right of way is needed by the City of Minneapolis for public purposes. Encroachment Permits are revocable at any time in the interest of public safety.

Permits will be issued for 1 - 3 years. At the end of the initial permit period, the applicant may request to have the project remain additionally for 1 or more years. The City will consider this request after examining the work for maintenance needs. After you have approval from the Arts Commission, Mary Altman will notify staff in the Right of Way Division that you are ready to apply for your permit. At this phase, submit the following:

1. A completed encroachment permit application (see Forms) and a check for $50 (see forms).
2. A certificate of insurance as proof of general liability coverage for $500,000 per occurrence, naming the City of Minneapolis as additional insured as to acts committed by the applicant for which the City could be held responsible.
3. Using the Art Consent Form (see forms), signatures from all of the abutting property owners.
4. A letter of credit naming the City as payee in a dollar amount determined by Public Works (see forms). The dollar amount will be determined by Public Works. The City has the right to present this letter to the issuing bank or other financial institution for payment if the maintenance or removal is not completed by the applicant or is unsatisfactorily completed.
5. Note: Applicants or their vendors must also obtain permits for obstruction, blocking sidewalks and road and lane closures. Visit the City’s website at www.minneapolis.mn.roway.net to request those permits.
INSTRUCTIONS

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How long does it take to make a project like this happen?
   It depends on the scope of the project. Please read these instructions to ensure you have developed an appropriate timeline for your project. In order to address your project's unique issues, we strongly suggest that you allow at least two months for approvals.

2. What type of paint should be used?
   Latex, unless you obtain approval from the City for another type.

3. I’m an artist, how do I get my worked installed?
   In most cases, individual artists cannot apply to have their works or designs installed on City property. We suggest that you contact your neighborhood organization or a local arts group to see if they will sponsor you.

4. What is the costs of an encroachment permit?
   $50.

5. Do I need an encroachment permit for every location?
   Yes.
Selection Criteria

These criteria are based on the City’s Public Art Goals and are used by the Public Art Advisory Panel and the Arts Commission for evaluating proposed projects. The role of these groups is to ensure that community proposals are consistent with City policies. They rarely decide to not recommend projects and often propose changes that need to be implemented before permits are issued.

Stimulate Excellence in Urban Design and Public Arts

- Do the designs and the locations provide an opportunity to make an engaging or bold artistic statement?
- Does the project provide an opportunity for a unique public artwork?
- Do the proposed artists have a significant or engaging body of work?

Enhance Community Identity and Place:

- Does the project have the support of the neighborhood organization and property owners?
- Are the locations good places to showcase a public artwork?
- Does the project provide an opportunity to reflect on the community and its characteristics, including history, identity, geography and cultures?

Contribute to Community Vitality:

- Will the project be visible to and attract visitors and residents?
- Will the project build capacity and cooperation between the private and public sectors, artists, arts organizations and community members?
- Has the project engaged the community (or will it)?
- Does the project provide an opportunity to encourage civic dialogue on City issues?
- Is the design and location safe?

Three Phases of the Review Process

1. Public Art Advisory Panel: The Panel, which consists of experts, community members, and Arts Commissioners, conducts a thorough review based on all of the criteria. If the panel has a concern about a project, they may approve the project with a condition that the applicant make a change in their plan, before moving forward.

2. Minneapolis Arts Commission: Arts Commissioners are appointed by the Mayor and the City Council. City ordinance requires the Commission approve the location of artworks. Their role is to ensure that the project is consistent with public art policy.

3. Public Works Staff: If the Arts Commission recommends approval, the applicant then provides final submittals for the permit to Public Works.
Involve a Broad Range of People and Communities:
• Does the project engage citizens, neighborhoods and organizations in the planning and creation of the artwork?
• Will the project be accessible to people with a range of abilities?
• Does the project celebrate one or more of the City’s cultural communities?

Value Artists and Artistic Processes:
• Does the project nurture an emerging artist?
• Has the design process included an artist and artistic process as a central element?
• Does the project support the artists’ right to retain most of their copyrights, except for in the case of sharing information for not-for-profit purposes?

Use Resources Wisely
• Are the conditions at the proposed site stable enough to support an artwork during the timeframe?
• Does the applicant have the capacity to implement the project at the proposed scale?
• Is there a realistic and achievable maintenance plan?
• Are the appropriate materials being used?
