

Mayor R.T. Rybak

presents

A Forum to address youth violence as a public health issue

Featuring

Congressman Keith Ellison

Mayor Rybak, Congressman Ellison & other local advocates will discuss efforts to reduce youth violence.

The City of Minneapolis has declared youth violence as a public health issue and has developed the Blueprint for Action: a framework to reduce violent crime and homicides.
The forum will highlight the Blueprint as an adaptable model for other communities as well as to identify a role for the federal government to partner with localities on youth violence prevention.

Friday, May 1st
3:00 - 5:00 p.m.

North Community Youth and Teen
Enrichment Center YMCA
1711 West Broadway Avenue
Minneapolis

Please join Mayor Rybak, Congressman Ellison and others in your community to learn about efforts to reduce youth violence in Minneapolis and future initiatives to address the needs of our youth, law enforcement and residents.
