

Penn Avenue S. Reconstruction Update May 30, 2014

Phase II Construction Will Begin the Week of June 2

The Phase 2 limits are from just south of 50th Street W to approximately 100 feet north of 54th Street W.

CenterPoint Energy is finishing up their connections to the new gas main between 52nd Street W and 50th Street W

Week of June 2, 2014

Beginning the morning of June 2 Penn Avenue S., between approximately 150 feet south of 50th Street W (just south of all the businesses located at 50th Street W and Penn Avenue S) to approximately 100 feet north of 54th Street W will be closed to through traffic, as the Contractor will begin removing roadway pavement. These removals will also include sections of sidewalk on the west side of the street. Removals should take about a week.

During the majority of construction, local access to homes and businesses will be maintained. Through traffic will be detoured around the project on Lyndale Avenue S.

Following removals the contractor will begin storm sewer upgrades and soil corrections.
