

August 23, 2012

Good Afternoon,

Thomas and Sons will be paving between 35th to just north of Burger King tomorrow. They are continuing with subgrade correction and underground utility work north of 34th St, this work should be completed early next week. After the subgrade work is completed, they will begin with grading in the area north of 34th St.

The intersections of 32nd, 33rd, and 34th will be closed. They will minimize the parking restrictions as much as possible outside of the construction zone. The restrictions are necessary to allow for equipment maneuvering and to maintain safety for the public as well as the construction workers. All businesses will be open.

Minneapolis Water- there is some necessary maintenance work south of 33rd St. This should be addressed in the near future.

Minneapolis Traffic is working on the permanent traffic signals at 35th St.

Century Link is working on their second manhole at 32nd St.

A few questions in the Phase 1 area...

When will the last layer of asphalt be put down? The last lift/layer of asphalt will be done at the same time for all 3 of the 2012 phases. This will occur late in the 2012 construction season.

When will the trees get planted? Minneapolis Park Board intends to plant all the trees in the 2012 Phase 1 project area at the same time. Tree planting is typically in the spring and fall and after the construction is completed, this means the trees in the Phase 1 area will likely be planted next spring.

When will the grass/sod boulevards get planted? These will also get planted in the fall.

When will the street lights be done? Minneapolis Traffic has been installing the wiring, poles, and fixtures for the new street lighting system. Additional fixtures have been ordered, they will be installed when they are received.
