

Pedal Cars

What is a Pedal Car?

A non-motorized, human powered bicycle-like vehicle which transports five or more passengers plus the driver/operator. Passengers may bring their own food and beverages, including some alcoholic beverages, on board for their tour through the city. It may be up to 12 feet high and 20 feet long.

Are Pedal Cars legal in Minneapolis?

In February 2013 the Minneapolis City Council approved local ordinance Chapter 306 making them legal in Minneapolis. This law requires pedal cars to be insured, inspected and licensed. Every driver/operator must also be licensed by the City of Minneapolis.
