PBS-05	Public Safety Criminal Case Files (Incident and Investigation) Section Overview MPD Criminal Case Files are records that document complaints, arrests and incidents that are identified or reported to and investigated by the department. The initial offense information (incident or offense report) is acquired from a variety of sources and is recorded into the MPD case management system CAPRS (Computer Assisted Police Records System). CAPRS is the "backbone" for police information and it is the official records management system (RMS) for managing MPD cases. Depending on the nature and severity of the crime, case records may consist of a compilation of multiple record and media types that, in their entirety constitute the complete record for a case. Any given incident, complaint or offense report (in CAPRS with subsequent investigation) may be assigned to multiple officers, supervisors and investigators any/all of which may update the associated case record in CAPRS. For serious crimes and those requiring more extensive investigation, the offense report in CAPRS may be supplemented with additional status information, report results/findings, transcribed interviews, copies of recordings, photos, medical records, etc and will have associated original source documents (to support the supplements) held elsewhere. Case files differ in their details, contents and organization. For retention schedule descriptive purposes, case file records are reviewed and grouped (virtually) by similar functions. The major groupings or sections of a case file (whether paper, electronic or in CAPRS) may consist of one or more of the following: Case Initiation (including the original offense report); Case Supplements (including investigation information), Supporting Documents (including forensics reports, medical records, photographs), Witness Statements (including victim, witness and suspect, Scales recordings), Referential Documents (including criminal histories, crime maps); Legal Process Records (enabling documents including search warrants, implied consent forms, subpoenas) and Property Inventory Information related to the case. Each grouping or section is described in greater detail below: 1. Case Initiation (Original Offense Report) The offense report is the initial report created or received by the MPD detailing a crime, persons, vehicles involved, evidence, stolen or damaged property, and a brief summary of the crime. Information in the original offense report may include: Identify the crime

	by name and statute, date, time, when reported, who reported the crime, reporting officer (officer completing the offense report), assisting officers, unit assigned (sex crimes, robbery etc.), location of crime, victim (s) information (name, date of birth, address, phone #.), suspect (s) information, arrested person (s) information, description of persons involved (clothing, intoxicated, uncooperative), description of lost or damaged property, description of inventoried property, vehicles involved, etc.. 2. Case Supplements (Case Investigation Information) Case supplements are the detailed statements or summary record of an Investigator's and Officer's actions and observations throughout the case investigation process. Case supplement information is entered into CAPRS. The supporting records (original reports) may be retained in the case file, may be property inventoried or may be held by the Crime Lab. Records may include: Officer's supplement, Investigator's summaries (usually more than one), observation and action summaries, supplements regarding test requests, results of forensic tests, lab results, autopsy reports, transcriptions of interviews (witness, victim, suspect), etc. 3. Case Supporting Documents (Forensics Reports/Medical Records) Case file supporting documents include a wide variety of forensic tests conducted by the Crime Lab, BCA and others. Case file supporting documents may also include medical records. The forensic reports are official documentation regarding the collection of, processing and testing of evidence. This documentation may assist investigators in determining suspect identity or involvement in a crime. Additionally, the results of forensic testing may corroborate the truthfulness of a victim, witness and/or suspects. This documentation will assist the City and County Attorney's Office in determining a charge and case presentation at trial. In addition to the forensic reports, medical records provide documentation of a present and/or previous medical treatment of persons involved in a case investigation which may, support, verify or disprove a specific claim. Results of tests and reports are entered into CAPRS as a case supplement. The original reports may be retained in the case file, may be property inventoried or may be held by the Crime Lab.

PBS-10	Public Safety Common Police Department Records Section Overview Records in the Common Police Department Records Section of the Public Safety Retention Schedule include the typical types of records that may be found in all or most units of the Police Department (Patrol, Precincts, Investigative Units). Because most of these records can be found in multiple units, the Common Police Department Records section has been established to centralize the records in one area and to provide for ease of reference. Records that are specific or unique to individual units are identified in other sections of the schedule - either by unit name or more generally by their function (for instance, criminal case files are defined in a section that includes case files and the associated records that begin with an incident through investigation and closure). NOTE: Records identified by the MPD during the records inventory that are common to all City departments can be found in the Quick Link Mappings section of the MPD Schedule. The Quick Link Mappings Section indicates what section and record series of the City of Minneapolis General Retention Schedule that a common Administrative, Legal, Financial or Human Resources record has been mapped to.

PBS-34-09	Public Safety Sex Crimes/Predatory Offender Predatory Offender File/Registration/Compliance Tracking The Predatory Offender Registration process includes the registration and continued updating of registration information and compliance tracking processes associated with the predatory offender program. The predatory offender registration (POR) law is a system under which an individual convicted of a predatory offense (i.e., sex offense) is required to register with the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension (BCA) for a period of time, usually ten years. Minn. Stat. § 243.166. The law applies both to adults and juveniles and is designed to assist law enforcement in keeping track of predatory offenders and protecting public safety. The type of community notification that occurs depends on the risk level to which the offender has been assigned. Retention is based on the level of risk (level 1, 2 or 3) assigned to the offender, whether the person is subsequently incarcerated or any new offense occurs, or whether a person is required to register for their lifetime. A primary goal of the program is to reduce the number of sex crimes by maintaining active, annually updated records of identified sex offenders. The case files are also used to identify and monitor sex offenders living within the city. NOTE: See the Remarks section for retention exception for persons subject to lifetime registration. ALSO NOTE: Predatory Offender Change Forms and POR Lack of Primary Address Check-In forms that are received and are entered (CSC or POR database) and where notification of receipt has been received from the BCA can be destroyed 3 years following the last update. Maintain most current information as long as the Predatory Offender File is maintained. Records may include: registration form including address and contact information, information on crime for which convicted, change of address or employment information, photographs, community notification information, notification of change in jurisdiction, notification that offender is no longer registerable, Department of Corrections - DOC Packet, psychological reports, notifications to BCA and record of receipts, Department of Corrections - End of Confinement Review, POR Change Form	PUB902	ACT+10	ACT+10	ACT+10	ACT	SEX CRIMES UNIT		Active ceases after the following: Except for those persons subject to lifetime registration, a person who is required to register is subject to the law for ten years from the time he or she initially registered in connection with the offense, or until the probation, supervised release, or conditional release period expires, whichever occurs later. For individuals who have been civilly committed, the ten-year registration period does not include the period of commitment. In addition, a new ten-year registration period applies to a person subsequently incarcerated following a conviction of a new offense or after a revocation of probation, supervised release, or conditional release for any offense. These individuals must continue to register until ten years have elapsed since they were last released from incarceration, or until their probation, supervised release, or conditional release expires, whichever occurs later.

PBS-34-10	Public Safety Sex Crimes/Predatory Offender Predatory Offender Community Notification All predatory offenders are subject to the community notification law. The purpose of the records is to provide notice to the public to announce a community meeting related to a predatory offender residing in the community. Notification for Level 1 and Level 2 offenders is discretionary. Notifications to victims who have requested disclosure is mandatory. Community notification of Level 3 offenders is mandatory according to Minnesota Statutes 244.052. The community notification law applies during the entire time an offender is required to register under the predatory offender registration law. Minnesota's community notification law requires assignment of risk levels to predatory offenders (i.e., sex offenders) who serve time in prison and are required to register under Minnesota's predatory offender registration law after their release. Based upon the risk level assigned to the offender, law enforcement must share certain information and may share other information about the offender with certain individuals and entities in the area where the offender lives, works, or attends school. Information about Level III sex offenders is also forwarded to the BCA. The BCA and Department of Corrections posts information about Level III offenders on their Internet web site along with information about non-compliant offenders. Copies of community notification records are maintained with the Predatory Offender registration/Compliance files. Records may include: Notice of meeting	PUB902	ACT+10	ACT+10	ACT+10	ACT	SEX CRIMES UNIT	Active ceases after the following: Except for those persons subject to lifetime registration, a person who is required to register is subject to the law for ten years from the time he or she initially registered in connection with the offense, or until the probation, supervised release, or conditional release period expires, whichever occurs later.
