

License Application: Special Late Night Food

Definition: Any business with an on-sale liquor, wine, or beer license may apply to remain open to serve food later than your authorized hours. Your business must be licensed as a restaurant or banquet facility. During the special late night hours, your menu must include at least four entrees, sandwiches, or other principal food items. You may not serve alcohol during the special late night hours. Except for Sundays, your business must be open for eight continuous hours, plus the hours allowed by the special late night hours food license. A maximum of 50 special late night food licenses will be issued at any one time.
