

Crime Victim's Rights

1. You can apply for financial help to cover losses (not property losses) as a victim of a violent crime. To do so: call 651-201-7300 OR 1-888-622-8799.
2. You can request that the police withhold public access to data revealing your identity. The police department will decide if this is possible. Contact the Police Records Unit to make this request at 612-673-2961.
3. You have the right if the offender is charged, to be informed of and participate in the prosecution of the case, including the right to request restitution for losses you suffered because of the crime.
4. If you feel that your rights as a victim have been violated, contact the Crime Victim Justice Unit at 1-888-622-8799 or dps.justiceprograms@state.mn.us.

Domestic Violence Information

IF YOU ARE THE VICTIM OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, you can ask the city or county attorney to file a criminal complaint. You also have the right to go to court and file a petition requesting an Order for Protection from domestic abuse. The order could include the following:

1. An order restraining the abuser from further acts of abuse;
2. An order directing the abuser to leave your household;
3. An order preventing the abuser from entering your residence, school, business, or place of employment;
4. An order awarding you or the other parent custody of or parenting time with your minor child or children; or
5. An order directing the abuser to pay support to you and the minor children if the abuser has a legal obligation to do so.

For additional information, to get an Order for Protection, or to talk to a police investigator, prosecutor, or advocate call the Hennepin County Domestic Abuse Service Center at 612-348-5073.
