Glossary

Arrest: Taking a person into custody, which may be imposed by force or may result from a person submitting to a member. An arrest is a restraint of greater scope or duration than an investigative stop or detention. An arrest requires probable cause that a crime was committed or is being committed. This includes booking, citing in lieu of booking, and releasing pending charges.

Arrested Person: A person that has been taken into custody, and the restraint and duration are greater than an investigatory stop or detention. This includes people who are arrested and released at the scene, and those who are booked.
